PERMISSION TO LEAVE CAMP

(Refer to Information for Parents brochure)

Camp Sea Gull and Camp Seafarer encourage all campers to remain within the Camp setting for the entire session. We have found that visits away from Camp can be disruptive for the individual camper as well as the camper's cabin group. Camp is aware that certain family situations might require a camper to leave temporarily, and we will accommodate parental decisions on this matter. If your child is to be picked up by someone other than you on closing day, please list the party below.

Camp Sea Gull and Camp Seafarer will not allow, under any circumstances, a camper to leave the Camp during a session or at the end of a session with anyone other than a parent or adult (21 years old or older) identified below, as approved by the camper's parent/parents or legal guardian. We will allow a camper to leave Camp with a sibling under 21 years of age, but only if specific permission is given below. These permissions should be listed on this form and not faxed or phoned in at the last minute. Photo ID is required.
